

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

There are now 43 County Agents in Kentucky.

The oldest man in Chicago, Jacob Harris, aged 102, a Republican since 1861, has come out for Wilson.

The Democratic Women's Bureau has opened headquarters in Seelbach's Hotel, Louisville, with Mrs. Hardie P. Ripy, chairman, in charge.

Elimination of the word "obey" in the woman's answer in the Episcopal marriage service was recommended at St. Louis, but action deferred for three years.

Costs are not part of a fine and remission of the latter does not carry exoneration from costs with it in the opinion of Assistant Attorney General Charles H. Morris.

The Booster trips are bearing fruit already. One of the merchants sold three suits of clothes and another a bill of groceries, to people from Bumpus Mill, Monday.

The Court of Appeals affirmed the Jefferson Circuit Court, which dismissed a revenue agent's suit to collect an inheritance tax on $300,000 adjudged to Ellen J. Ewald, widow of L. P. Ewald.

The Allies have seized the entire navy of Greece and recognized a rebellion and provisional government on the island of Crete. Things seem to be drifting towards a republic with Venizelos at the head of it.

The delegates to the State Medical Society's meeting here Oct. 24 to 26 will come in Tuesday and the first meeting will be Tuesday night. All indications point to an attendance of 300 or 400 doctors and 60 ladies.

Democrats should bear in mind that the vote for Stanley and Morrow last year showed a majority for Morrow in the Third Judicial district. Christian gave 2100 majority to Morrow due to disaffection among Democrats. No such disaffection is apparent this year towards Wilson or Judge Bush, but it must not be overlooked that the figures show that Judge Bush's election cannot be taken for granted.

When the Boosters get to Cerulean they will find the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Stice thrown open to them with hot coffee and refreshments for the visitors. If necessary one of the ten-minute hot-air speeches will be cut to make room for hot coffee. Mrs. Stice's hospitality is proverbial and many Hopkinsville people have been entertained at her home. Mr. Stice operates the flour mill at Cerulean.

Apparently there are very few Hughes supporters in New York who are willing to risk their money by laying odds on their favorite's chances at 10 to 7. Saturday large quantities of Wilson money appeared in Wall Street and other betting centers. The Wilson men sought to bet it at 10 to 7, taking the short end, but they found no one willing to lay those odds. A wealthy Ohio Democrat also appeared with $25,000, which he tried to lay against $25,000 that Wilson would carry Ohio. He found no takers.

MR. ALLENSWORTH'S DATES.

As B. Allensworth has wound up his court business for this term and has offered his services to the Democrat committee for the rest of the campaign. He will make two speeches in Lyon county Saturday and four in Daviess, four in Henderson and four in Hopkins next week. The last week of the campaign will be spent in the judicial district.

CLARK-ROGERS.

Y. G. Clark, a farmer, aged 25 years, and Miss Gertrude B. Rogers, aged 24, both of Stewart county, Tenn., were married at the courthouse here Tuesday. Judge Knight performed the ceremony.

BOOSTER TRIP POSTPONED

Rain Yesterday Made Dirt Roads Too Heavy For The Schedule.

NEXT TUESDAY THE DAY

Route Extended to Golden Pond Across The Cumberland River.

Owing to the continued rain yesterday, the Committee met at 2 p.m. and postponed the trip to Tuesday, Oct. 24. The roads were deemed too heavy for the autos to make schedule time. It was also decided to put Golden Pond on the list of places to be visited, the time being 3:30 in the afternoon. New bills will be taken or sent along the route in a day or two.

H. H. Abernathy and Morgan Boyd went over the route of the Caldwell-Trigg trip of the Boosters Tuesday and found a cordial welcome awaiting the visitors all along the route. They were also asked to put Golden Pond on the schedule, which is 3 miles from Canton, between the rivers. A detail will be sent there from Canton, as it is not practicable for all of the cars to be ferried across the river in time.

The meeting Monday night decided on the schedule that is given in this article and another meeting Tuesday night received a report of the pathfinders.

Lorenzo K. Wood and Pettus White decided yesterday to make the trip and will be given some speaking assignments. Both have it in them to make fine boosters, and both come from the territory to be covered.

Princeton has made a request for a visit, but this will be made later in connection with the Dawson trip.

The committee on automobiles were at work yesterday and expected to have no trouble getting all of the cars needed, about 20 to 25. It was made plain that any man who takes liquor on the trip will be unwelcome and will be exposed. It is to be a business trip and not a junket or a jamboree. Its high character will be maintained at all hazards.

EXTRAORDINARY SITUATION

Calls Forth the Following Statement to Newspaper Readers.

To newspaper readers of Kentucky:

The Executive Committee of the Kentucky Press Association wishes to bring to the attention of the newspaper readers and the friends of the press, the serious situation confronting the publishers at this time, and point out some facts which we feel should be communicated to you in our attempt to meet conditions recently thrust upon us. We do this after much thought on the matter, feeling that we are acting for the good of both publisher and reader. Doubtless you have been, or will be, called upon to pay a few cents more on your job work, and in some instances more for your paper and advertising in cases where subscriptions and advertising rates have been at the minimum.

In the interest of a free press we ask you to meet the advance cheerfully.

There may be ample excuse, slight excuse or no excuse to advance the prices on us as they have been advanced, but the fact remains that we are paying from 50 to 500 per cent more for our paper stock, inks, oils, gasoline, metal, etc., than we did eight months ago.

Paper makers insist that there must be a cutting down in the demand upon them; that they are working three shifts a day, and at this season of the year when they should be accumulating a reserve stock, they cannot supply the demand. Large publishers everywhere are trying to meet the suggestion of the paper makers by the strictest economy, in which they are cutting down the size of paper margins and granting no return of unsold papers. Small publishers have slight opportunity to economize in this manner. The Federal Trade Commission is deeply concerned and alarmed but so far seem powerless to suggest feasible or adequate relief methods. Under existing circumstances few newspapers can continue long without readjustment. Hundreds of the weaker ones have already gone under and many more are about to suspend.

There is a remedy and it lies in the strictest economy, advancement of rates on job work, advertising and subscriptions. It matters not how reluctant publishers are to do this, it will have to be done if they continue in business, and continue to be useful to their readers and patrons.

In conclusion, we call on persons who believe in the mission of a free press to co-operate with us in adjusting our business to these new and unheard of conditions.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,

Of the Kentucky Press Association. P. S. Since the above statement was prepared we note that a number of press associations have prepared similar statements to the public.

VISITING DAUGHTERS

Clarksville Chapter To Be Entertained By Local D. A. R.

The D. A. R. Chapter from Clarksville will visit the D. A. R. Chapter of this city to-morrow and be entertained at the Carnegie Library. Some time ago a number of the local Daughters went to Clarksville and were entertained and this is a return visit. A program has been prepared, including some remarks on Patriotic Women by Chas. M. Meacham.

RACE CARDS ARRANGED

Owners of Horses to Test Merits of Their Stables Friday and Saturday.

TO SETTLE CONFLICTS

Some Fast Trotters and Pacers To Be Seen Here This Week.

Lovers of horse racing will have the opportunity of seeing some fine sport at the Pennyroyal Fair grounds tomorrow and the next day, when a number of races are scheduled to be pulled off. There will be about 30 horses here for the event and an addition to the races there will be other attractions and interesting contests, giving each afternoon a full program. The races will be for the purpose of actually determining which horses out of a considerable number which have been making a circuit of southern fairs and which have been racing against each other this season, are really the best in their classes, and there will be the keenest sort of competition between the horse owners themselves.

Among the horse owners are: Walter Hutchinson, of St. Louis; J. W. Tullis, of Galesburg, Ill.; J. W. Miller, of Hickman, Ky.; Tom Reynolds, of Chicago; J. T. Fowler, of Martinsville, Ind. Some of the horses and their records which will be here are:

Free for All Pacers—William Wallace, 2:09½; Alfreda, 2:09½; Minnie Burris, 2:11½; Wood's Daredevil, 2:10½; Lady of the Lake, 1:13½.
2:15 Pacers—J. P. T., 2:17; Paoli Boy, 2:19½; Lon E., 5:14½; Leu Bion, 2:18; Mary Laconda, 2:16½.
2:15 Trot—Chris Grathin, 2:18½; Onward Todd, 2:15½.
Green Stakes—Ben Johnson, Cash Cheek.
Free for All Trot—Red Streak, 2:11½; Pearl Ann, 2:12½; Ham Patterson, 2:09½; Mary Hutchins, 2:11½; Violben.

CIRCUIT COURT MOVING SLOWLY

Nearly All Important Cases Have Been Disposed Of This Week.

Little is being done in Circuit Court. The case of Blanch Leavell vs. City of Hopkinsville, one of the "Gully Street" damage suits, was left open for argument while Judge Breathitt went to Madisonville in the Keach case. It is thus left in an unsettled condition.

The Jesup will case, involving the property of the late Mrs. W. H. Jesup, has been continued.

Judge McCarrall is on the bench while Judge Bush is campaigning in Calloway.

CASEY RESIGNS

A. M. CASEY.

County Agent A. M. Casey has resigned and his resignation will be acted upon Saturday by the Crop Improvement Association.

OLLIE JAMES ON WILSON

President Prayed With His Cabinet That Peace Might Prevail.

In his speech at Madisonville Tuesday, Senator Ollie James, in the course of a great speech said:

"The only thing they've got against Wilson is that he didn't hang crepe on the door of the millions of American homes. They charge that he has written notes—yes he has, and is there anybody that can beat him writing them? If some other rulers across the Atlantic had written notes like those written by Woodrow Wilson there would have been no European war. With his notes he has wrung from the most militant power that ever brooded over battlefield absolute concessions in the matter of submarine warfare and made it conform to the demands of the United States.

"Behold whilst our president who loves mankind is busy grappling with foreign matters to keep us out of war, there he those who shoot him in the back.

"Behold Washington praying for victory at Valley Forge; behold Lincoln as he prays that the war of sections might be averted; behold Woodrow Wilson when he called the cabinet together to consider the Lusitania affair when he said to them: 'Gentlemen I don't know whether you believe in the efficacy of prayer or not, but I do,' and he knelt there with those men in his office and asked God that this country might be spared from war, and that prayer was answered."

Senator James concluded his magnificent speech with this peroration: "Behold this nation is at peace—millions of toilers and happy homes with the family circle unbroken. When all of the turmoil and tribulation of this earth is over, and when we stand in the great white light of the judgment dawn, there will stand Woodrow Wilson with clean hands and a clear conscience, and the Master will say unto him: 'Blessed are the peace makers, for they shall inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.'"

Dr. J. M. Dennis died yesterday at the home of his son, in the county, aged 83 years. He was for many years a physician of this city and was a Confederate veteran. He had been an invalid from paralysis several years. He is survived by his wife and four children—Will, Medley and Morton Dennis and Miss Lalla Dennis. CLASHES NEARLY MISSED

Austro-German Offensive in Galicia Nets Trenches on Front of Over Mile.

London, Oct. 18.—Vollhynia, Galicia and Transylvania are still the points where the heaviest fighting is taking place. Along the Somme front in France, bombardments alone have prevailed, except to the east of Belloy-en-Santerre, where the Germans threw two attacks against the French, only to be repulsed.

In Macedonia, the hostilities have been confined mainly to patrol engagements and artillery duels. Bad weather has set in throughout the Austro-Italian theater and with snow in the mountains and rain in the valley, little fighting of moment has taken place.

Continuing their offensive in Galicia, the Austro-Germans according to both Berlin and Vienna, have taken trenches over a front of 1½ miles from the Russians and made prisoner thirty officers and 1,900 men. West of Lutsk, in Volhynia, the Russians attacked violently many times, but according to Vienna, were everywhere repulsed with great losses. In the southern Carpathians, near Dornawatra, additional heights have been taken from the Russians by the Teutonic allies.

In Transylvania the Rumanians fighting near the border passes continue tenaciously to hold back the Austro-Germans almost everywhere. In the Uzal valley, they have driven the invaders back across the Rumanian border.

With the occupation of Athens and Piræus by marines from the fleet of the entente powers, and intense situation has arisen in Athens. Great crowds of royalists have paraded the streets of the Greek capital cheering the king and cordons of Greek troops and marines have been thrown about the railroad stations, city hall and other points occupied by the entente forces to prevent clashes between them and the royalists. An unofficial dispatch says Admiral Du Fournet was hissed by the throngs in the streets of Athens and that a detachment of French sailors was driven back by the hostile crowd.

King Constantine in a speech to the officers of his fleet told them he would stand by them, no matter what consequences might follow their loyalty to Greece.

Vice Admiral Fournet, commander of the Anglo-French fleet in the Mediterranean has handed the Greek government a new note of an extremely grave character, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Athens, dated Monday. Following the presentation of the note King Constantine, it is added, came to the capital in haste from the royal residence at Tatoi. An urgent cabinet council has been summoned.

The entente allies have taken over the Greek battleships Kilgis, formerly the United States battleship Idaho, the Lemnos, formerly the Mississippi, and the Averoff, says Reuter's Athens correspondent.

Allied crews were put on board the battleships, the correspondent says, and the Greek crews were landed and sent to Athens.

On Oct. 11 the allies took over the entire Greek fleet except the Kilgis, Lemnos and Averoff.

Saturday's Primary.

Ballots are being printed for the mayor's primary Saturday, containing the names of the five candidates. The names are arranged alphabetically to start with, but with every 50 ballots the top name is transferred to the bottom of the list. There is no device on the ballot and nothing to indicate the politics of any candidate.

DOPING THE RESULT.

The conservation tabulation of the political outlook shows that of the 266 electoral votes necessary for a choice Wilson is reasonably certain of 230. He must get 36 of the doubtful votes to win and Hughes needs 36.

Of the states marked surely for Hughes, democratic managers claim that Michigan and Pennsylvania are both doubtful. While we accord Hughes with 123 certain votes, in the same sense that Wilson has 157 certain votes, the two states mentioned might be subtracted with the result that Hughes could rely on but 70.

Of the states leaning to Hughes, the democrats have high hopes of carrying Massachusetts and Connecticut. They regard Wyoming and Illinois as doubtful. The Chicago Tribune a week ago Sunday declared the chances were equal between Wilson and Hughes. There is more chance of the states listed as probably for Hughes changing to Wilson than for those listed, probably for Wilson changing to Hughes. In fact the only state marked "probably" for Wilson which we think at all questionable is Wisconsin.

Among the doubtful states New Jersey and West Virginia with a total of 22 electoral votes are generally conceded to Wilson by the political writers. The three coast states are confidently claimed by both political parties. In fact, in the entire list the democrats would only admit that North Dakota is doubtful.

We are not making a list of partisan claims, but suggesting a conservative basis on which our readers can formulate tables of results of their own.

Certain for Hughes—Maine 6; New Hampshire 4; Vermont 4; Rhode Island 5; Pennsylvania 38; Delaware 3; Michigan 15; Iowa 13; Minnesota 12; South Dakota 5; Kansas 10; Idaho 4; Utah 4. Total 123.

Certain for Wilson—Virginia 12; Kentucky 13; Maryland 8; North Carolina 12; South Carolina 9; Georgia 14; Alabama 12; Florida 6; Mississippi 10; Louisiana 10; Oklahoma 10; Arkansas 9; Tennessee 12; Texas 20. Total 157.

Leaning to Hughes—Massachusetts 18; Connecticut 7; Illinois 29; Wyoming 3. Total 57.

Probably for Wilson—Indiana 15; Missouri 18; Nebraska 8; Colorado 6; New Mexico 3; Arizona 3; Montana 4; Wisconsin 13; Nevada 3. Total 73.

Doubtful—North Dakota 5; Washington 7; Oregon 5; California 13; New York 45; New Jersey 14; West Virginia 8; Ohio 24. Total 121.

Total electoral vote 531, necessary for a choice 266.—Evansville Courier.

Quail Prospects Fine.

WAR FROM ITS LIGHTER SIDE

Newspaper Correspondents Tell Humorous Stories of Incidents in Which They Have Figured.

The war correspondent's life in former days was not wholly made up of adventures that called for daring but had also much of humorous relief, as these episodes will show:

When the British army, with Lord Roberts at its head, was drawing near Bloemfontein, and it was known that, contrary to expectation, the town would make no opposition, two enterprising correspondents, Gwynne of Reuters' agency and Patterson of the Sydney Herald, rode ahead of the column with the object of being the first to enter.

As they approached Bloemfontein, the sight of these heralds of the British power caused such alarm that women and children fled in terror, and a couple of bicyclists fell off their machines and held up their hands in token of surrender. Preceded by scurrying inhabitants with cries of "The British are coming!" they entered the town with the air of conquerors, and were received by the mayor, Landrost, and other officials, all tumbling over one another in their eagerness to be the first to offer their submission. And it was by the two correspondents, shaking with internal laughter, that the rulers of Bloemfontein were escorted to Lord Roberts' headquarters, to make their formal surrender.

G. W. Stevens was Mr. Gwynne's companion on another occasion, when together they were the first to enter Volo, during the war between Greece and Turkey, in 1897. So anxious were the citizens to capitulate that, at their request, Mr. Stevens drew up the proclamation of surrender, which the mayor read to the inhabitants from the balcony of the town hall; and when the sultan's troops made their appearance, it was to learn that the town had been peacefully "captured" some hours earlier by a couple of war correspondents.

SOUTH AMERICA DOING WELL

Republics Are Regularly Shipping Vast Amounts of Food to the Allies.

The financial depression in South America which followed the outbreak of the European war has disappeared, and conditions there are improving daily with the increase of vast shipments of supplies to the allies, according to R. R. Martinez, a plano importer, who returned recently from a tour of South America, says the New York Herald.

Exchange rates with Europe on the part of Chile, Uruguay and Argentina are rapidly approaching normal. Mr. Martinez said, and vast credits are being added to the account of the various countries in London and Paris for supplies shipped. These supplies, he added, would go in far greater quantity but for the lack of shipping facilities.

"Every vessel which leaves Argentina," he said, "carries from 3,000 to 5,000 tons of meat for the European armies. Chile is shipping vast quantities of copper to the allies, and Uruguay is the center for the allied purchasing agents who want alfalfa hay and wheat."

The South American countries, Mr. Martinez said, are ready to ship to this country all kinds of raw material for manufacturing purposes if the ratio of exchange can be bettered and coal prices obtained.

Two Questions.
A good story is told by a Liverpool officer back from France. In the rear of the British lines a concert was being given for the entertainment of the Tommies. Among the contributors was a soldier who purported to be a piper, but whose performances inevitably invited a challenge. He was vigorously hooted by a section of the audience, and amid the din a raucous voice rang out: "Send that silly fool away!" The unkind aspersions, coupled with the violence of the language, moved one of the army chaplains, who was "running" the concert, to protest. He asked who had insulted the piper. There was no response. He persisted: "I want to know who called the piper a silly fool." A momentary silence was broken when a hurly burian rose from his seat and said: "And what I want to know is who called the silly fool a piper!"

Electric Poultices.
A substitute for hot water bags, poultices, etc., is a 400-watt incandescent lamp having a carbon filament designed to produce much heat and little light. This lamp is provided with a wooden handle and is inclosed in an elongated reflector, with a five-inch opening bringing heat and light rays to a focus two inches beyond the edge. The lamp is connected by an extension cord to a plug fitting any ordinary lamp socket. The parts of the body receiving the usual applications are heated only by convection affecting the surface, but the lamp heat is transmitted by radiation, reaching various depths in the tissues up to two inches. Greater healing effect is therefore claimed.

Urge Use of White Materials.
Spokane (Wash.) laundrymen have begun to urge their patrons to use white goods. A printed notice reads that since the war began many of the dyes used to color wash goods have proved to be inferior and will not stand washing. Red and black dyes are the colors that "run" the most, according to the laundrymen.

SILO IS NECESSARY TO DAIRY

Grazing Land Then Can Give Way to Exercise Lot—Roughage Is Conserved for Feed.

The intelligent farmer of today has a silo to take the place of his grazing or pasture land, and finds it real economy, says De Laval Monthly. In fact, there are some dairy farmers in the dairy sections of our country who have only an exercise lot in place of pasture land, and nearly all their farm roughage is conserved for feed during the summer and winter. They have their summer and winter silos. These farmers rapidly learn the advantages of winter dairying, which are: A greater milk and butter production, better prices for milk and butterfat, better quality of calves, hence better dairy cattle, and better prices for their crops, by feeding them to their own live stock at that season of the year.

Winter dairying also enables the farmer to employ the best kind of labor because it is possible to give steady employment the year round.

Tribute to the Worker.

GIRL DIES AS PREDICTED

Fortune Teller Told Pennsylvania Girl to Avoid Trips on the Water.

Phoenixville, Pa.—The body of Dorothy Barr, the seventeen-year-old girl of this place, who drowned in the Schuylkill river, was found about one mile from the spot where she lost her life when her canoe upset. Lock Tender Hennessy, at the Pawling locks, saw the body floating in the river and recovered it from a boat.

The drowning of Miss Barr and the finding of her body followed the prediction made a week before the girl's death by a fortune teller whom she and a girl friend consulted in a spirit of fun. The seer then told Miss Barr to avoid all trips or voyages upon the water, and said she would take such a trip and would drown. The fortune teller also predicted that after four days her body would be recovered. The girl laughed at the clairvoyant, but the prophesy was vividly recalled to the mind of her companion when the body was recovered.

Carefully Treat Children's Colds

Neglect of children's colds often lays the foundation of serious lung trouble. On the other hand, it is harmful to continually dose delicate little stomachs with internal medicines or to keep the children always indoors.

Plenty of fresh air in the bedroom and a good application of Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve over the throat and chest at the first sign of trouble, will keep the little chaps free from colds without injuring their digestion. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

MIGHTY IN SINEWS OF WAR

If Wealth Is Any Test This Country
Could Stagger Any Hostile
Combination.

If we accept Professor Atkinson's estimate that the Civil war cost $8,000,000,000, and remember that the national wealth, including slaves, was placed by the census at only $16,159,616,068 in 1860, and at only a little more than $30,000,000,000 in depreciated currency even five years after the war had ended, it is seen that the struggle between the states cost between one-fourth and one-half of their then existing wealth.

All calculations as to what wars cost are subject to grievous and even monumental errors. Albert W. Atwood writes in the Saturday Evening Post. But this much we know: The north raised nearly $4,000,000,000 in loans and the south raised $2,000,000,000. Call it $6,000,000,000 actually obtained for war purposes by the two opposing sections.

If the north and south in conflict could expend $6,000,000,000 on war half a century ago, what could the united country assemble for such a purpose today, with ten times the wealth? This country has a puny, negligible national debt. The European countries were enormously—almost ruinously—in debt before they began their war, some of them with ten to fifteen times as much debt per capita as the United States. Yet they have already floated $30,000,000,000 of bonds, and the end is nowhere in sight.

The total aggregate wealth of all the belligerents is hardly more than one-third greater than ours. If wealth is any test this country could stagger almost any conceivable combination that might be formed against it.

SALESWOMAN GOT WRONG TIP

Finally Discovered That Her Customer
Was in a Way English and Yet
Not "English."

A well-dressed young woman stepped off the elevator in one of the department stores and started to make her way toward the millinery department. From the manner in which the floor walker stepped up and addressed her, calling her by name, it was obvious that she was a customer whose patronage was sought. She intended to buy a hat, she informed the floor walker, and he escorted her to the millinery department, called for the head woman and introduced her to the customer.

"Miss Smith," he said, addressing the saleswoman, "this is Miss Hobbs." And then, with instructions to see that the customer saw the best in the store, the floor walker departed.

The saleswoman, observant student of human nature, was effusive in her attentions, but she had heedlessly disregarded the name of her customer. Miss Hobbs' favor seemed to rest with a plainly tailored hat.

"That is an English walking hat," the saleswoman explained. "It looks perfectly stunning on you. It looks as though it were just made for you. Are you English?"

"No," said the customer absent-mindedly, as she adjusted the hat further over her eyebrows. "My name is English, but—"

"Ah, yes, Miss English, I noticed that. Are you any relation to Captain English?"

The young woman, with an effort, controlled the expression on her face, and managed to explain to the embarrassed saleswoman that her name was not "English," but that she had an English name.—Indianapolis News.

Legislative "Work."

Congressman Bennet of New York was talking on the floor of the house the other day and Ben Hilliard of Colorado asked him to yield just for an twenty-second bit while he asked a question. The nature of the question does not concern us, but Bennet replied:

"I'm a Yankee and so I'll answer the gentleman's question by asking another question." And he did so.

"I'm a bit of a Yankee myself," replied Hilliard, "and I'll answer the gentleman's question by asking another question."

Whereupon Bennet fell back on his Yankee prerogative and asked still another question.

Thus the thing went on until one of them got tired and they called it fifty-fifty—with none of the questions answered.

China Sales to U. S. Increase.
The United States is annually increasing its purchases from Chinese merchants. Last year was a banner year for the Orientals engaged in American trade, their total sales aggregating $33,496,497, an increase of $14,460,427 over the previous year, according to invoice records of the American consulate at Shanghai.

Chinese dyestuff and indigo merchants are reaping large profits from the sale of their accumulated stocks. Consul Sammons at Shanghai reported. Some of America's big purchases in the year showed the following increases: Gold bar shipments, $3,170,764; raw silk, $2,840,195; straw braid $301,496, and sheep's wool, $566,067.

Burn 90,000 Bad Eggs.

One way to get rid of bad eggs is to burn them. Federal officials set fire to 90,000 of them at Washington pure food experts declared the eggs to be unfit for food. The eggs had been placed in storage in a stable, and were discovered, then the District of Columbia supreme court condemned them.

EASY AS ROLLING OFF A LOG.

The Boston Post is disposed to poke fun at Republican managers, when it says that all that has been necessary, according to them, to win the great doubtful states of Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Ohio was to turn Mr. Hughes loose in a speech or two and the thing was done. And now the evasive candidate has only to open his mouth in a sufficient number of Democratic states and behold there is no need of an election. Nothing in the nature of a sure thing has been easier since the histrionic career of Col. Mulberry Sellers. It is doubtful if Candidate Hughes has won enough votes in his swing around the circle to make an impression, while it is absolutely certain that his evasive speeches have added votes to the Democratic column. The people hate a dodger and a straddler. Mr. Hughes has not increased the respect for him in his efforts as a 100 per cent candidate. A common scold is a very undesirable citizen and that is all Mr. Hughes is.

The Nov. American Magazine

Charles M. Schwab, the Bethlehem steel man, has written a stimulating and inspiring article for the November issue called "Succeeding With What You Have." In it he gives you the angle from which the boss looks at his men.

A new department called "Getting Ahead" is started and the public is invited to ask questions about how to advance in the business world. The most helpful questions will be answered in the pages of the magazine.

There are several other good articles, one of the best being "Weather and Business," which tells how the elements affect business. "Public Health" is discussed by Dr. Richard C. Cabot; "$5,000 Worth of Experience" is written by a man who feels he has earned that amount through mistakes; and the theatrical article deals with famous mimics. The state article is about "Ohio," and was written by Brand Whitlock, United States Minister to Belgium.

The fiction includes the second installment of "Cinderella Jane"; "Broken Ribs," by Olive Higgins Prouty; and stories by John Taintor Foote, Jack Lait and Ralph Stuart.

The interesting People department is excellent this month as is the Habit department. There are the usual contributions to the family money.

The First Steam Engines.

The first known use of steam to drive a kind of steam engine was described by Hero of Alexandria, probably in the first or second century B. C. But the first real steam engines were those used at the end of the seventeenth and in the early eighteenth centuries for pumping water out of mines. Newcomer's engine was used in English mines about 1711.

Sen. James at Madisonville

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 18.—Not since W. J. Bryan made his first appearance here has there been such a gathering of democratic forces as were here Tuesday afternoon to hear the speech of Senator Ollie M. James. Senator James spoke to an audience that packed the Garrick theater, the largest building in the city, from top to bottom and several hundred were unable to even get in hearing distance of the speaker.

The entire week will probably be taken up in this trial. Judge Breathitt, of Hopkinsville, and Cox & Grayot, of that city, are assisting the prosecution while Gordon, Gordon & Moore and Yost & Franklin represent the defendant.

BARES G. O. P. VOTE STEAL PLOT

Independent Paper Charges
Wide Spread Republican
Negro Colonization Frauds.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Under the heading, "state wide frauds seen in Chicago plot, Chicago is involved," the Chicago Daily News, one of the great independent newspapers of the country, today exposed the scheme of republican leaders to steal the electoral vote of Illinois and other middle western states through the importation and colonization of negroes.

The News, which devotes several columns to what it intimates is a wide spread attempt to defeat the re-election of President Wilson through fraudulent methods, had assigned a staff of men to the task of uncovering the republican plan to debauch the ballot in pivotal states.

Every Democrat Expected To Do His Duty.

There are five campaign committeemen in each precinct in the state whose duty it is to see that every Democrat or other person who will vote the Democratic ticket shall go to the polls on Nov. 7th and cast his ballot. These gentlemen have been appointed because of their enthusiasm and energy and it is safe to assume that they will do their full duty. If they do and a full vote is recorded there will be no doubt of the outcome. Kentucky is naturally a Democratic State and it is only when Democrats fail of their duty that she departs from her traditions. There is every reason this year that every Democrat should be alert and let nothing keep him from the polls. President Wilson must be kept on guard to protect the honor of the nation without war if possible, and to maintain peace and prosperity. What he has done is an earnest of what he will do to carry out the splendid program mapped out. Be sure to go to the polls and stamp under the rooster.

C. P. Meeting A Week.

As has been previously announced, the meeting at the Cumberland Presbyterian church will continue through the week, or at least until tomorrow night, at which time, it is understood, Dr. Courtner will be obliged to leave the city to meet other engagements. Large crowds attend the night services and the afternoon services are growing in interest as well.

Street of Authors.

It would be interesting to know the name of the lover of the "Vicar of Wakefield" who sought to show his affection for this classic tale in naming the streets which lie about the old parish church of Leyton. For we find here streets named after Goldsmith, Oliver, Thornhill, Wilkott, Burchell, Primrose and Sojia. Probably Bath of all towns has paid the most liberal tribute to the famous in its street nomenclature. Its roads, avenues, places and rows commemorate the names of Shakespeare, Kipling, Milton, Longfellow, Chaucer, Shelley, Tennyson, Byron, Macaulay, Nelson, Fielding, Landseer, Rosebery, Chatham, Livingstone, Gladstone, Evelyn Gordon and Brougham.—London Chronicle.

HARM BY SQUASH BUGS

Insect Attacks Many Plants in Vegetable Garden.

No Poison Can Be Applied That Is Effective—Anything With Strong Odor Will Act as Repellent—Keep Close Watch.

The squash bug attacks squashes, pumpkins, cucumbers and such plants, often ruining the crop in a day, if nothing is done to overcome them. No poison can be applied that is effective, as the insects' work is done on the under side of the leaves where the poison will not reach. They also do their work in the early morning while the dew is still on the foliage. Anything with a strong odor will act as a repellent, also material like air-slaked lime or finely-ground land plaster will have a marked effect in keeping them away.

Careful watch should be kept for the first appearance of the bugs. At the first sign of them, sprinkle the hills with the dry material, on which just enough crude carbolic acid has been sprayed to give the material a strong odor. Quick action must be the watchword. One day of delay means the loss of the crops. Cantaloupe vines seem particularly susceptible to the attacks and they seem to succumb to the ravages of the insects more quickly than squashes and cucumbers.

There is another remedy frequently used, where it is obtainable, and it gives excellent result. It is fish scrap, finely ground. This may be strewn with a lavish hand as it is cheap and besides repelling the bugs, serves an excellent purpose as a fertilizer. Two dustings with the powder, if no heavy rains occur, will usually do the work. One application of the fish scrap is usually sufficient. If there are no rains to wash it away, what damage the bug does is done quickly, in fact the ravages do not usually last more than two weeks.

Forget Your Aches.

IMMENSE STATUE OF BUDDHA

Unearthed in Burma by Chance, It Is Easily the Largest Monument of Human Form in the East.

The largest monument of the human form existing in the east today, if not in the world, is the great reclining statue of Buddha, near Pegu, in Burma, around which the government has now erected a building with lattice steel pillars to protect it from the elements. This Colossus was brought to light during the construction of the railway that runs northeast from Rangoon to Mandalay, says the Wide World. While the permanent way was being banked up to protect the lines from occasional floods the engineer in charge required for the purpose of his work a harder ballast than the alluvial deposit over which the line was running could give him. Less than a mile away was a tree-clad mound, and here, it was thought, suitable material might be found. The task of clearing away some of the trees took about an hour or so, and then shafts were sunk to find the needed stone. Before the diggers had gone down more than a yard they struck an enormous and fairly preserved figure of Guatama. In actual length the statue is 180 feet and 50 feet high at the shoulder. The figure and its pedestal are of brick, covered with plaster. Since its discovery the plaster has been renewed and painted over, the box at the head and the finger nails gilded and the head decorated with glass jewels. The statue is thought to be about 500 years old, but no one knows its history, no reference whatever being made to it in Burmese legends or traditions.

Giving Him Confidence.

It was his first campaign, his first political speech, even. Although the county committee had sent him into a rural district to try out his oratorical wings, he was encouraged by the warm welcome of the local committee and the elaborate preparations for the meeting that were evident on all sides. There was even a band that played on the stand in the public square for half an hour before the speech. Finally the great moment arrived. The chairman stepped to the platform rail and addressed the crowd.

"Fellow citizens," he said, "we have with us today a young man who is destined to make his mark in the ranks of our party. He comes to tell us of the burning issues that confront us, and his fame as an orator has preceded him. He will now address you, and when he has finished the band will call you together again."—Youth's Companion.

Life a Reign of Terror.

In the American Magazine a writer says:

"For most men life is a modified reign of terror. Three fears get up with them in the morning and go to bed with them at night. They do not confess to one another that they are afraid; but their wives know."

"At night, after the children have been sent to bed, they sit by the fire, the average man and his wife, and face their three fears:

"First, the fear of the loss of the job."

"Second, the fear of bad health."

"Third, the fear of a dependent old age."

THE CREDULITY OF MANKIND

Catalogue Houses Quack Doctors of Commerce.

PROMISES, NOT GUARANTEES

A Mail Order House Baron Never Shoves His Patent Leather Shoes Under a Poor Man's Table—His Victims Extend From Ocean to Ocean—From Sunrise to the Last Chance.

[Copyrighted, 1914, by Thomas J. Sullivan.]
Said a clever quack to a painstaking business man, "How many of the passing multitude, do you suppose, appreciate your honesty or understand the impositions of quackery?"

"Not more than one in ten," was the answer.

"Well," said the quack, "you may have the one. I'll take the nine."

That is the system upon which the mail order houses operate, and nothing more strikingly portrays the credulity of mankind than their success. Quackery is a thing universal and universally successful. In most cases it is literally true that no imposition is too great for the credulity of man.

The Quack Doctor of Commerce.

The retail mail order house is the quack doctor of commerce. It promises much and guarantees nothing. Like patent medicines, the directions are always on the inside, and you must buy a nonreturnable package before you can find out what they are.

The mail order house never helped to build the little white school in your district or turnpike the road past your door. No mail order house ever took you by the hand when you were in distress and told you to let the little account run until after harvest next year. No mail order house ever sold you a vehicle and spent every cent of its profits in the community where you and your neighbors could get it all back again. No mail order house ever shoved its patent leather shoes under your table and rejoiced with you when you were glad, nor spoke encouraging words when affliction visited you, nor stood with uncovered head beside the graves of your children.

Sentiment is Unknown.

That the mail order houses are after your money is an undisputed fact. Every dollar sent to them leaves your neighborhood forever. The mail order house may bear upon its face the semblance of friendship, but no human heart beats under its cloak of hypocrisy. Sentiment to it is unknown. The whole institution is as cold and bloodless as a corpse.

There never was a farm in all Christendom whose value was increased by the mail order houses. They are parasites to which life is worthy of notice only while they can draw the financial blood out of the communities, to the upbuilding of which they contribute nothing. They create no local market for the product of the farms. They have no property in the country which can be assessed to help bear the burden of taxation.

Can Duplicate Every Offer.

In every town in the country the local retail merchant stands ready to duplicate every offer seductively set forth in the catalogues of mail order houses, and more. He will trump the best trick the mail order house ever played if you will put down spot cash and accept from him a class of goods devoid of respectable ancestry and upon which no reputable manufacturer's name can be found, but in which the disease germs of prison made goods are secreted.

He can sell cheap goods if you will buy them from him with your eyes shut. He can meet the best price ever made by a mail order house if you will plunk down your money and accept what he gives you without question and without recourse. But you must not expect him to be in his place of business every day in the year, ready and willing to make good any defect, ready and willing to stand back of every article he sells with his own reputation and the warranty of a responsible company.

Local Merchant Needs No Advocate.

The local merchant needs neither advocate nor defense. His methods rest upon principles that have built up in this country a system of internal commerce which is both the marvel and the admiration of the world. His business is legitimate because its success contributes to the general prosperity of the community in which it stands as a thriving example of honesty and industry.

It does not require that a man shall be endowed with unusual mental attainments for him to know that a private monopoly in restraint of trade, designed to wring extortionate profits from consumers, is detrimental to the best interests of the patrons of that industry. Any combination organized for the purpose of smothering competition, whether it be of capitalists, capitalists of industry, laborers, farmers, warehousemen, transportation lines or any other branch of the business world, is essentially unethical, unwise and destructive of business in the end.

The honest consumer must put himself enthusiastically on the back when he spends his money in such a way that in supplying his own wants he is helping to build up the community in which he lives.

BY-PRODUCTS AND SAVINGS

Science Has Done Much in Conserving Materials That Once Were Wasted.

Hurrah once more for science! It has hit the hull's-eye again in a case where the target appeared to be beyond the reach of man, "Girard" writes in the Philadelphia Ledger.

A wise manufacturer from Ohio is making sewer pipes, and good ones, out of the molten lava scooped from a Hawaiian volcano. Can you beat it? Why, it seems that on every side of us there has been something valuable lying around loose which has millions in it. An official report shows that northwestern farmers have been throwing away straw every year worth a sixth as much as their total crop.

Cottonseed, which a few years ago was considered a nuisance, has become so valuable it can be made to liquidate the entire expenses of producing the cotton.

Coal-tar products derived from coke—once a total waste—are now worth more than the coke itself.

From the Geodetic survey I learn that 2,000,000 barrels of gasoline can be squeezed from the shale rock of northwestern Colorado and, if you drive a car, you know Mr. Rockefeller is not giving away gasoline today.

Ask President Samuel D. Warriner about it and he will tell you that the Lehigh Navigation company built a vast power plant. Why? To convert coal at the mines which was too small to be marketed profitably into electricity, which is shipped by wire scores of miles, and so does the work of thousands of horses.

Instead of paying a contractor to remove street refuse most live cities now make the contractor pay big money for the privilege of removing it. There is money even in garbage.

Fortunes have been saved by cutting logs into lumber with fine-toothed saws instead of the old-fashioned saws with the big teeth. Indeed, getting an extra board out of every log, which the sawdust-saving fine saw does now, spells the difference between success and bankruptcy in many lumber operations.

Don't Neglect Your Cold.

Neglected colds get worse, instead of better. A stuffed head, a tight chest, must be relieved at once. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is Nature's remedy. Honey and glycerine heal the irritated membrane, antiseptic tar loosens the phlegm, you breathe easier and your cold is broken up. Pleasant to take, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is an ideal remedy for children as well as grown-ups. At your Druggist, 25¢.—Advertisement.

Government "Movies."

The department of agriculture keeps up a special motion picture factory at which it makes the films it uses in promoting scientific farming. The department lends the films to illustrate lectures and the field force shows them at country schoolhouses and churches, where they have invariably attracted large and interested audiences. Even before the factory was set up various bureaus of the department made use of films in educating the public. Thus, the bureau of animal industry had a special film to show the southern farmers how to make and use the dipping vats that would free their herds of ticks. It also shows films that illustrate the correct ways of handling meat, breeding cattle and raising poultry. The good roads division and the forest service have made a similar effective use of motion pictures.

Economy in England.

"What's this?" exclaimed the young husband referring to the memorandum she had given him. "One dozen eggs, a pound of raisins, bottle of lemon extract, a tin of ground cinnamon, and a half pound of sugar. What on earth do you want with all these things, Elsie?"

"I've got a stale loaf," replied the young wife, "that I am going to save by working up into a bread pudding. I never let anything go to waste, Henry—especially in war time!"—London Answers.

Mighty Power of Love.

Love is the purification of the heart from self; it strengthens and ennobles the character; gives higher motive and nobler aim to every action of life, and makes both man and woman strong, noble, and courageous. The power to love truly and devotedly is the noblest gift with which a human being can be endowed; but it is a sacred fire that must not be burned to idols.—Miss Jewsbury.

Mrs. B. Scores Twice.

Mrs. Blunderby (to caller)—While passing your house yesterday I saw the hospital avalanche drive up and stop only a few doors away.

Caller—The avalanche? (Recovers herself.) Oh, yes; a poor man very ill.

Mrs. Blunderby—Dear me! Nothing contagious, I hope.

RELIEVE HEADACHES WITHOUT DOSING

By Applying Sloan's Liniment to Forehead You Can Stop the Severe Pains.

Many headaches are of a neuralgic origin. The symptoms of such headaches are intense and lingering pains in the brow, temples or back of the head.

There is one certain relief that has been known and recommended for years back, Sloan's Liniment. One application and the dull pain is practically gone. It is easily applied without rubbing. Rubbing is unnecessary, as Sloan's Liniment quickly penetrates to the seat of trouble.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, bruises, lumbago, chilblains, sprains and stiff neck can also be most effectively treated with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than musky plasters or ointments; it does not stain the skin or clog the pores.

At all drug stores, 25c., 50c., $1.00.

INCORPORATED

Hopkinsville. Stephen E. Trice was one of the town's earliest bankers and his only son, John B. Trice, was raised in the bank with his father and is now vice president of the City Bank & Trust Co. Of the latter's large family of sons, two of them are prominent bankers in Tampa, Fla., and all are prosperous business men.

One of these sons is Frank D. Trice, born in Hopkinsville July 9, 1879. He was reared in the city of his birth and educated for the most part in Ferrell's High School. Later he went to Bethel College at Russellville and his education was completed at the University of Virginia. While in that institution he was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Well equipped for a business career, he came home from college and found a place waiting for him in the Planters Bank & Trust Co. Here he remained for nine years, following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather. In 1908 he gave up banking and formed a partnership with Bailey Waller, then one of the several furniture dealers in the city. The firm's business grew rapidly and in 1912 it was incorporated under the name of The Waller & Trice Furniture Co. Mr. Trice is vice president and treasurer of the corporation, and has been largely instrumental in doubling the business within the last few years.

At present the house occupies its own building on the corner of Main and Eighth streets and is recognized as one of the city's most prosperous and substantial concerns.

Mr. Trice was married in 1905 to Miss Katherine Quick, and they have two children, a son and a daughter, and live in a pretty home on Twentieth street.

Mr. Trice has since his childhood been a member of the First Baptist church and is a member of the board of deacons.

As a citizen he is wide-awake and progressive, as a business man enterprising and reliable and as a gentleman is courteous, affable and popular. He represents the best type of Hopkinsville's young leaders of commercial life.

Will Try Another Tack.

There are evidences that the Republicans are finding that their tirade against the eight-hour law has lost them many Republican votes as well as alienated a large majority of the workingmen, and will take another tack to win back the deserters. If they have been arguing for a principle as they claim, they are going to sacrifice it for expediency and talk to the laboring classes only about the blessings of a high protective tariff and the need of it when the war is over and Europe begins to dump her pauper labor manufactures upon us. Such a contingency is too remote as it will be years before the war stricken nations can recover or will be able to compete in any way with this country.

SOLDIER'S NOTE WINS BRIDE

New Jersey Guardsman Tossed Hardtack and Inscription Out of Window.

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 18.—Fred L. Schultz, of Linder, N. J., was with a trainload of guardsmen who passed through Ramsey, Ill., from New Jersey to the border some months ago. Dinner was before the soldiers as they entered Ramsey. He scribbled his name and regiment on a piece of paper. He wrapped some hardtack in the paper and tossed it out of the window.

Emma H. Klimper found the hardtack and corresponded with the man. Schultz and Miss Klimper met in Decatur Friday. Rev. F. A. Mavighurst, pastor of the First Methodist church, had a little job Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Schultz is a blacksmith and may locate in Decatur if he can find work.

WHY "RAMONA" IS POPULAR.

When the Clune Film Producing Company of Los Angeles decided on "Ramona" as their next big production, they showed much business acumen in selecting a book that it is estimated has had over twenty million readers.

Helen Hunt Jackson's famous story has had a sale of over $400,000,000 copies and it is the usual rule to figure that each book will be read by at least five persons.

There are now 16 companies presenting "Ramona" in the U. S. and as soon as the European War ends, it will be taken over there. There are 1,000 separate and distinct scenes in "Ramona" and it required 8 months to complete it with its wealth of detail. It is claimed by its sponsors to mark a new era in the field of motion photography and to be most beautiful and artistic photo spectacle at present before the public.

"Ramona" with a special orchestra to play its magnificent musical accompaniment, will be the attraction at Tabernacle on Oct. 26th and 27th.

Owing to the fact that "Ramona" has been so widely read as a novel by women and children, it has been decided to give matinees during the engagement of this much heralded cinematic spectacle in Hopkinsville in order to afford them an opportunity of viewing in real life pictures the beloved characters of Helen Hunt Jackson's justly celebrated story.

Modern Ideas Are Crushing Mother's Traditions.

The November Woman's Home Companion prints a story in which the writer says:

"I don't know why we bring them up as we do. Why do mothers suppose their daughters feel so differently from the way they themselves felt when they were young?"

"This is the proposition we give them: 'Your most sacred duty is making a home. Your holy vocation is that of wife and mother—but,' we go, 'you must never raise your little finger in finding the man who can help you make this home.'"
